Oteake skink

Oligosoma aff. inconspicuum "North Otago"

Conservation status

Regional Threatened: Vulnerable National Threatened: Vulnerable

Main threats

Habitat change (e.g. fire) Introduced mammalian predators

Identify me by my ...

Light-brown to dark-brown upper surfaces

Abundant black flecking

Stripes along sides (usually notched)

Large black spots along edge of throat

I look similar to...

I inhabit...

Rocky areas (e.g. boulderfields and bluffs) with lots of woody vegetation (especially snow tōtara and Coprosma) and tussock grassland with abundant Dracophyllum shrubs.

Body length: Up to 70 mm

I eat...

Berries and insects

 ${f Tussock}$ skink

McCann's skink

